What others say about Chris Wright

Chris and I first met when he was in a commercial lending role with a major lender and I was completing a property development project that required finance. Since Chris has left the bank, I have used his services to find financing solutions for my personal property portfolio and my current property development project. Chris' commercial lending experience provides me with the support I need to ensure that I can focus on my business priorities, safe in the knowledge that I have a professional handling this important function in my life. Frazer Dean - Managing Director Insite Constructions.

Chris helped me buy my first home, he gave me excellent advice and guided me through the entire building and financing process to ensure I could get the best house and the best loan for my circumstances. I would highly recommend Chris as my experience using his services saved me thousands of dollars and countless hours all at no cost to me. Melanie Anderson – Teacher Cooroy High School.

Chris financed my new personal vehicle recently and made the process smoother and easier by eliminating my need to obtain finance quotes and the confidence of pre-approval gave me more bargaining power with the dealer which saved me thousands. Michael Sobey – Partner Sykes Pearson Miller.
